The traditions in England

-Some of the Christmas traditions are exclusive to the United Kingdom and the Boxing day is one of them.

In the United States, St. Nicholas is known as the Santa Claus, which is basically derived from Dutch term "Sinter Klaas", but in the whole of United Kingdom, he is almost exclusively known as Father Christmas.

- 1) Children believe that Father Christmas or Santa Claus leaves presents in stockings or pillow-cases.
- 2) Christmas tea, rolling at around 6 pm is the round two of the sit down with the family.
- 3) Every year, thousands of people visit the Oxford Street to watch this big 'switch on'. The most famous decoration can be seen in Oxford Street in London, and it keeps getting better and bigger.
- 4) The royal Christmas broadcast by their reigning queen or king is a mainstay of England. George V began the tradition of sending out a Christmas message to the public in the year 1932, and it's still followed.
- 5) In England, the main Christmas meal is usually eaten in the mid-noon or at lunchtime on the Christmas day. The wassail bowl, brimming with spiced and hot wine tops the day's feast.

BMW M5 F90

The BMW M5 Competition model was introduced in August 2018, with power increased to 460 kW (617 hp) at 6,000 rpm and torque remaining unchanged at 750 N·m (553 lb·ft) between 1,800 and 5,800 rpm. The official zero to 100 km/h (62 mph) acceleration time was reduced by 0.1 seconds compared with the regular M5 meaning zero to 100 km/h (62 mph) takes 3.1 seconds in accordance with BMW. Other changes include stiffer springs, increased front camber, a 7 mm (0.3 in) lower ride height, revised wheels and a redesigned exhaust system with a particulate filter added. In a test by sport auto the M5 Competition lapped the Nürburgring in 7:35.90. Although advertised at 460 kW (617hp) (measured at the crank) the M5 Competition in Car and Driver's dyno test showed 460 kW (617hp) at the wheels, suggesting a higher output than advertised.

For this beautiful car we can spend approximately 150 000€.

FIFA WORLD CUP Qatar 2022

-This event began on Sunday 20 November 2022 with loser country organizer (QATAR) facing (EQUATOR) From the birth of the World Cup ,no team from an organizer country had ever lost the first match.

- Qatar has succeeded in building the first demountable stadium called 974 for two reasons. Firstly, because it is built from containers (a world first) and modular steel elements, right next to a port. The most perceptive will have understood that it is precisely 974 containers that were used to build this sports stadium. The second reason is a reference to the international telephone code of Qatar, which is none other than... 974.

-On the second match, the team of Saudi Arabia won facing the Argentina, and so, the king (Salmane ben Abdelaziz Al Saoud) created a bank holiday as a gift for the victory. Some supporters of SAUDI ARABIA joked on best player in the world who has seven « ballon d'or » : « WHERE IS MESSI ?» yet he played at the meeting.

During the day performs stunts for Hollywood films and work on the side in a garage run by his friend Shannon (Bryan Cranston). Avatar 2

La Voie De L'eau

Avatar 2 (The Way of Water) is the movie of 2022 which all people are waiting for. It will come out on the 14th December and it will last 3 hours and 10 minutes.

The movie is the following of the first one, the story happens a decade after the story of the first film.

AVATAR 2 : LA VOIE DE L'EAU is about Sully's family members (Jake, Neytiri and their children), there will be a lot of action, fights and many hardships they need to go through to survive.

The movie took 10 years to be created and on the trailer, the graphism are incredible so I'm so hyped.

I'm doing this article because the first movie Avatar is the movie of my childhood. I liked the first one and I hope the second will be as good.

Review

The film is about the eventful life of Forrest Gump (played by the principal actor Tom Hanks), a “simple-minded” from Alabama who finds himself involved, most often unintentionally, in the major events that mark the history of the United states of America. Between the 1950s and the 1980s, Forrest even being sometimes the cause.

Award-winning film

It's a very good film which has received many prizes like six Academy Awards in 1995 (including Best Film, Best Director for Robert Zemeckis and Best Actor for Tom Hanks). In 2011, the film was selected by the National Film Registry of the Library of Congress for preservation because of its “culturally, historically or aesthetically significant” interest.

By LAZNY Tristan

Disneyland Paris is constituted of two parks, the first one is Walt Disney Studios and the second is Disney Village. There are a lot of people during the year, with more than 9 million of people per year and 27 000 people per day. You can visit the different stores and find all the films of Disney on the clothes sold there. For the 30th anniversary, every day there is a parade with lightings and music. One thing that nobody tells is that to take advantage of this place, it is better to stay several days, and of course in a hostel, especially if you live far away or in another country. The entrance is very expensive, people who don't have money can't go easily.
